A new American novel.

[Just published.]

Speaker.—"A charming story . . . the novel is delightfully fresh and natural."

THE MORALS OF MARCUS ORDEYNE

By WILLIAM J. LOCKE, Author of "Derelict," etc.

"* The dramatic version of Mr. Locke's remarkable novel is as great a success as the book itself. In the hands of Miss Alexandra Carlisle and Mr. C. Aubrey Smith, Carlotta and Marcus are earning golden opinions from both press and public. Those who made the acquaintance of this pair at the Garrick Theatre will gladly renew it in reading the novel."

Mr. LANE has in active preparation Mr. LOCKE's new Novel, THE BELOVED VAGABOND, which he will publish EARLY IN OCTOBER.

THE UNDYING PAST

By HERMANN SUDERMANN. Translated by BEATRICE MARSHALL.

Standard.—"It is practically impossible to have anything but praise for this powerful and virile translation of Sudermann's impressive work."

THE FIELD OF GLORY

By HENRY SIENKIEWICZ, Author of "Quo Vadis?"

Spectator.—"A spirited, picturesque romance."

THE BRIDAL OF ANSTACE

By ELIZABETH GODFREY, Author of "The Winning Road."

Westminster Gazette.—"Miss Elizabeth Godfrey's book is so instinct with charm, so full of individual atmosphere, of sweet sympathy and wide-eyed comprehension of human nature, that one finds it difficult to realise it is actually a novel and not a piece of life lived out before our eyes—a piece of life in which we have been sympathetic, intimate outlookers."

CORRESPONDENCE OF TWO BROTHERS

Edward Adolphus, 11th Duke of Somerset, and his Brother, Lord Webb Seymour, 1800-1819, and after.

Edited by LADY GUENDOLEN RAMSDEN.

With 3 Portraits and 3 other Illustrations. 8vo, 15s. net.

These two brothers, the sole family of the tenth Duke of Somerset, added to the lustre of their name by distinction in scholarship. At Oxford Lord Webb devoted himself to study in a spirit of earnestness seldom known among students of his rank, and in 1797 he went to Edinburgh to prosecute his investigations into moral and physical philosophy. Here he met many distinguished men, among whom were John Playfair, the eminent mathematician, Sydney Smith, Francis Horner, Francis Jeffrey, and Henry Hallam. Letters to or from these and many other famous men will be found in this volume, as well as selections from the correspondence that passed between Lord Webb Seymour and his brother the Duke of Somerset, Lord Webb died unmarried in 1819, the year also of his friend Playfair's death.

Edward Adolphus, the eleventh Duke of Somerset, was President of the Royal Institution of Great Britain from 1827 to 1842, and published books on geometry—a "Treatise on the Properties of the Ellipse, etc.," and "Alternate Circles," etc.

Lady Guendolen Ramsden, who edits the book, is a daughter of the twelfth Duke of Somerset.

"We have here a book which has been wanted for some time. . . . It is a truly monumental work, filled with information which will be useful to lecturers, students, and experts alike, and inspiring them at the same time with all sorts of valuable hints and suggestions on matters connected with their work. . . . In short, the book is a most stimulating contribution to our educational literature. The author has a thorough grip of his subject, and much that he says of his own system is applicable, mutatis mutandis, to ours."—SCHOOL.

"Prof. Paulsen's book abounds in suggestion, and we commend it especially to those who are connected with the new Universities in the big towns."—WESTMINSTER GAZETTE.

"The book is a work of real importance, controvertible necessarily in some of its judgments, but reasonable and essentially a historical as distinguished from a merely theoretical or argumentative work. To a theme of the profoundest interest Dr. Mackinnon does justice in these volumes, and the sequel will be awaited with no inconsiderable degree of interest."—ABERDEEN FREE PRESS.

"A story of unusual literary merit. . . . Altogether, it is a delightful book, over which we should like to linger, a book that, quite unlike 'Cranford,' yet possesses so much of the same charm which differentiates Mrs. Gaskell's masterpiece from the rest of her writings. . . . It is, however, not by its story that this book charms us, it is by the admirable manner of its presentation, the simple, unforced portraiture of diverse people, the pleasant literary style, and the wit and humour which irradiate the whole."—DAILY TELEGRAPH.

BLACKIE'S LIST

A New Book by Mr. Arthur Symonds
A PAGEANT OF ELIZABETHAN POETRY
By ARTHUR SYMONS

Edited, with an Introduction, by ARTHUR SYMONS. Crown 8vo, sumptuously bound in quarter vellum, 6s. net.
A "Pageant of Elizabethan Poetry" is an attempt to choose and arrange what is best in the best period of English poetry, from Spenser, in whom it properly begins, to Herrick, in whom it may be said to end. Herrick, though in point of time Jacobean, is really far more the last of the "tribe of Ben" than the first of those pious and courtly poets, Herbert, Crashaw, or Carew, in whom we hear the new speech of the seventeenth century. Every poem given has been given in full, and great care has been taken to secure an accurate text. Nothing has been put in because it was unfamiliar, or left out because it was familiar. The attempt has been to marshal a pageant, not to compile a text-book.

On October 15 Messrs. CHAPMAN & HALL will commence the issue of

THE NATIONAL EDITION OF THE WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS

Including upwards of One Hundred and Thirty Articles now collected for the first time.

HIS LETTERS, SPEECHES, PLAYS AND POEMS
Together with FORSTER'S LIFE OF THE AUTHOR

The pictures, numbering upwards of 850, comprise all the Original Illustrations; with a complete series of Portraits, Additional Illustrations, Facsimiles and Reproductions of Handwriting, many of which have not been included in any collected edition of the novelist's works; the whole printed upon India paper, and mounted on Plate paper.

Strictly limited to 750 sets for England and America. Complete in 40 volumes. Royal 8vo. Price 10s. 6d. net per volume.

N.B.—The Publishers reserve to themselves the right to raise the price after the sale of the first 500 sets.

The National Edition of the Works of Charles Dickens is designed to rank as the final and definite edition of his works, and to serve as a worthy memorial to the connection which has subsisted for over seventy years between the firm of Chapman and Hall and the immortal memory of Charles Dickens. It is by far the most handsome edition of Dickens ever placed upon the market, and being strictly limited in number is likely to take its place in a very short time among those treasures of the booklover which change hands at highly enhanced prices.

The edition is being printed by Messrs. T. and A. Constable, of Edinburgh, His Majesty's Printers, in a type newly cast for the purpose, upon pure rag paper of the highest quality.

THE TEXT.—The text used is that which was corrected by Charles Dickens himself in the last two years of his life, and therefore contains all the copyright emendations which he made when the volumes passed for the last time through his hands.

The edition contains all the collected papers from whatever source that seemed worthy of permanent association with the name of their author—from The Examiner, Daily News, Household Words, All the Year Round, over 130 in all—the most notable of these being all Dickens's contributions to Household Words, ninety of which have been identified for the first time by indisputable evidence.

THE ILLUSTRATIONS.—As regards the choice of illustrations, the Publishers' plan has been to include only those pictures which were drawn for their editions during the life of the author, and which may therefore be held to have received his personal approbation. Under this arrangement they are able to reproduce for the first time in a Collected Edition a number of illustrations not usually associated with the novels, and the utmost care has been taken to do justice to the artists' workmanship. The original illustrations are printed from a duplicate set of the steel plates on the best India paper and mounted on plate paper—a process which gives a greatly refined value to the delicacy of the original steel plates.

Send to CHAPMAN & HALL, Ltd., 11 Henrietta Street, W.C., for a complete Prospectus with specimen page, or ask your Bookseller to show you a sample volume.
